

Student/Teacher Ratios

Imagine Learning has a full load teacher to student ratio that averages 29:1 for all core and elective courses at the middle and high school levels. Teachers typically have a 5 class period load. The ratios below are based on the full load totals for all five class periods.

2023-2024

Full time teachers have a maximum full load of 200 students.

Full Load Overall Student to Teacher Full Load Ratio: 24:1

- Full-time: 33:1
- Part-time: 25:1

Course Type Breakdowns

Overall Core Courses Student to Teacher Full Load Ratio: 19:1

- Full-time: 32:1
- Part-time: 16:1

Overall Elective Courses Student to Teacher Full Load Ratio: 32:1

- Full-time: 37:1
- Part-time: 33:1

Grade Level Breakdowns

Overall Student to Teacher Full Load Ratio Grades 6-8: 6:1

- Full-time: 8:1
- Part-time: 8:1

Overall Student to Teacher Full Load Ratio Grades 9-12: 21:1

- Full-time: 28:1
- Part-time: 20:1

Additional teacher information is found at imaginelearning.com/edgenuity-florida/policies-and-disclosure

For Students in Grades K–3 and 4–5 Imagine Learning Maintains the Following Student Teacher Ratio:

*Imagine Learning does not typically hire part-time teachers for the K-5 grade band, if a part-time teacher is hired their ratio would be half of the full time ratio.

Grade Level Breakdowns

Overall Student to Teacher Full Load Ratio Grades K-3: 35:1

Overall Student to Teacher Full Load Ratio Grades 4-5: 40:1